CHRISTMAS 2016

Dear Praying Friends,

What a joyous time of the year! Praise God for this timeless promise in His Word: "... thou shalt ... call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: ... and of his kingdom there shall be no end" (Luke 1:31-33). Our Savior has indeed come, and we look forward to His soon return!

In the mean time we have the privilege of serving our King while it is still day. We wanted to give you another glimpse into His work in the Philippines. It is never just one person doing the work on ANY of GDMissions' trips; God assembles each team for that particular mission trip. [NOTE: The following ministry photos are courtesy of Bryan Bell.]

These eight servants (above) couldn't do what they TEAM grew from EIGHT to TWENTY! We thank the Lord for every local traveller halfway around the world to do without up to assist in the vital ministry of translating both for the care-givers LOCAL helpers. Here is the EXPANDED team (RIGHT):
as well as the evangelists (all of us).

Notice how the Christian He raises

As Rick shared the Gospel with these children, he was so grateful for the help of the two local Christian men (white shirts).

Rick was greatly helped by Bro. Stephen, who travelled from Manila to assist with translating. His help was invaluable!

Since returning to the States, Rick has been able to help Stephen's home church prepare for an evangelistic outreach on a local university campus in Manila by providing them with some of the same evangelism tools we used.

On the home front we continue to visit churches mainly throughout central Florida, presenting the ministry of GDMissions to the congregations. We also get to enjoy regular interaction with our precious grand-children.

Sharon Rose & curious Timmy

YOU dear brethren play a VITAL role in enabling us to work while it is day, sharing the Good News about our wonderful Savior Jesus, the LIGHT of the world. May His light shine brightly in your hearts as this Christmas! May our Lord Jesus bless YOU and your families as you celebrate His marvelous Birth!

Christ's unworthy servants,
Rick & Becky Enterline
